

Technical Description of the Product

FSi's PenoPatch system is a putty based penetration sealing device designed for small cables and plastic/metallic conduits in flexible and rigid walls. The PenoPatch system offers an easier alternative to the traditional method of sealing small services using fire resistant sealants. The PenoPatch is available in 60mm and 100mm diameter discs to cover a range of opening sizes and is fire resistance tested to EN 1366-3.

Intended Areas of Use:

- To reinstate fire resistance through Flexible walls
- To reinstate fire resistance through Rigid walls.
- Single Service penetrations
- Multi-Service penetrations
- Blank Openings

Key Product Advantages:

- Rapid and easy installation.
- No tools required
- No cure time required
- Up to EI60 fire resistance depending on application.
- 2 different size combinations, covering most small openings up to maximum 50mm.
- Ideal for Historical Building Upgrades or new build
